

A CLASS APART

Tejas Kudtarkar

William James Burgoyne Baird, Rahul Khanna and Narendra Kumar

Linen was the fabric of the day at the ongoing fashion week as Burgoyne, the 105-year-old Irish Linen brand presented 'The Millenials', a menswear collection by designer Narendra Kumar. The collection was admired for its soft tailoring styles and trending athleisure silhouettes. Closing the show was Burgoyne brand ambassador Rahul Khanna, who was the perfect muse to present linen for work, play and party! Also present that evening was William James Burgoyne Baird (Chairman WFB Baird), who flew down from the head office in Ireland for this evening that reinvented linen.

